

Tuition & Fees Details for Academic Year 2017–2018

Course Material Fees	$50/course	The course material fees cover the copyright, printing, and copying costs of materials prepared for each course.
Document Fee	$100 / $50	A one-time document fee to cover an unlimited number of transcript requests over the student’s lifetime. The fee is $100 for MPH students and $50 for MS and PhD students.
Student Activity Fee	$75/year	All students are charged an activity fee for the academic year, which includes participation in activities at the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Geisel School of Medicine, and The Dartmouth Institute.
Health Services Access Fee	$88/term	The Health Service supports the well-being of Dartmouth students and staff through an extensive program of services and education. Good health is an essential part of a successful educational experience. More Information >>
Health Insurance	Depends on chosen coverage	See below

Health Insurance

In addition to the Health Services Access fee, all Dartmouth College students are required to have health insurance that meets specific standards of coverage.

Health Insurance Coverage through Dartmouth

Unless you file a waiver (below), you will be automatically enrolled in the Dartmouth

Student Group Health Plan and the premium will be billed to your student account. No further action is required. The student coverage premium for 2017-2018 is $3,191.

Other Comparable Health Insurance Coverage

If you prefer other health insurance coverage, you MUST complete the online insurance waiver to avoid being automatically enrolled in the Dartmouth Student Group Health Plan and charged the insurance premium. Instructions and completion form for the waiver are found here >>
